FAQS

- 1. Q: Who can participate? Summer Reading is for all ages - babies through adults.
- 2. Q: Do I need to register? No, but at the end of summer, you will need to take our survey.
- 3. Q: How can a baby participate?
A parent or caregiver should read to, and log minutes for babies and young children. Adults can read to older children too, and children can count those minutes. Read aloud to all your children and they can all count those minutes.
- 4. Q: How can school-age students earn more reading minutes?
Read aloud with friends or siblings and everyone can count those minutes. If you have summer reading assignments from school, you can count that reading too. Be creative!
- 5. Q: Does attending story time or a library program count toward reading time?
Yes. If you are logging minutes, you may count the minutes you spend participating in a library program as reading.
- 6. Q: Do I need to finish a book for it to count?
No. If you are logging minutes, you do not need to finish a book to count the minutes. If you are an adult, read enough to give a good reason why you stopped as the review.
- 7. Q: What's involved in writing a book review for adult participation?
Adult participation is based on your age. If you are 18 or older, you are an adult. For each reading-level-appropriate book you read, fill out a review form. Each form is one entry in the End-of-Summer Raffle. Your review does not need to be extensive.
- 8. Q: Do I need to write legibly on kids' coupons or adult review forms?
Absolutely. If we can't read your writing, we won't be able to contact you if you win a prize.
- 9. Q: Do I need to be present to win a prize?
No. We will call all winners. Prize pickup times will be announced.
- 10. Q: When do I turn in my coupons or reviews for the Summer Reading Raffle?
All entries are due by Tuesday, August 11 by 6:00 PM.
- 11. Q: Where do I return my paper coupons?
